CLOSING DAY OF CONGRESS

NATIONAL LAWMAKERS ADJOURN

No Unusual Scenes in Senate— Speaker Cannon Praised by Leader of the Minority for Impartial Ruling.

Washington, April 28.—With the brief announcement and a sharp rap of his well worked gavel, President Pro Tem Frye adjourned the senate sine die at 2 p. m. to day. The occurrence was devoid of the unusual incident and final close of the session was but slightly different from the end of an ordinary day's sitting. The work of the session had been concluded before the final word was said, so that neither rush nor confusion marked the end.

The senate began its day's work at 10:30 o'clock, but the greater part of the time was devoted to a political debate, participated in on the republican side by Allison and Aldrich and on the democratic side by Gorman and Culberson. The discussion was based on a statement by Allison of appropriations for the session, comparing the figures for this year and for the administration of President Roosevelt with those of other years and other administrations.

The president and his cabinet occupied the president's office room during a part of the debate and some of the president's advisers were among the most interested listeners to the criticism and defense of their chief. Mrs. Roosevelt and other members of the president's family occupied seats in the gallery towards the close of the session and they, too, found entertainment in the proceedings.

The only important acts of legislation during the day were presentation and acceptance of conference reports on the Panama canal government and emergency river and harbor bills. Neither report aroused debate.

HOUSE.

The closing of day of the second session of the house of the fifty-eighth congress was made notable by a demonstration which was evoked by a resolution offered during the absence of Speaker Cannon by Williams, minority leader, testifying to the courtesy and impartial manner in which the speaker had presided over the house. The resolution was not of the perfunctory kind, but was expressive of the kindly feeling which the men in the house of all parties entertained toward him. Following the reading of the resolution which was punctuated with general applause, Williams said it was a great thing to be the speaker of the house of commons or the American republic, but was a greater thing not to permit the fact of promotion to that place, one of the most exalted in the world, to turn one's head in the slightest degree, or to deflect one from the course hitherto pursued, of being a plain American citizen with extraordinary common sense and a remarkable fund of that most characteristic of all American qualities—general humor.

This utterance provoked vociferous applause from both sides of the house and the galleries, which had become packed to suffocation. Williams convulsed the house by referring to a conversation he once had with the speaker, in the course of which he said: "Mr. Speaker, I will always think that you are fair as I believe you will be."

The speaker, he said, replied: "John, I am going to be as fair as I can consistently with exigencies of American politics."

Williams declared the speaker did himself an injustice when he put that limitation on his statement. "But," said Williams, "it was characteristic of the frankness and candor of the man to put in the limitation."

The resolution was adopted and when the committee appointed for that purpose escorted the speaker into the house pandemonium reigned. Democrats and Republicans alike cheered and applauded, the occupants of the galleries joining. When the speaker had mounted the rostrum, Williams, standing by Cannon's side, read him the resolution which had been adopted. The speaker was visibly affected and in a graceful speech declared his appreciation of the resolution. At the conclusion of his remarks the speaker declared the house adjourned.

The ovation to the speaker as he brought his gavel down will be long remembered as one of the greatest demonstrations ever witnessed in the house. As to a man, members rose and sang "America," occupants of the galleries joining in. Speaker Cannon took a position near the lobby on the republican side and members filed past and bade him "good-bye," all the while singing "He's a Jolly Fellow," with a refrain, "So Say We All of Us," to the tune of "America," closing with "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

CRUM REAPPOINTED.
President Roosevelt to day directed the re-appointment of W. D. Crum as collector of customs at Charleston, S. C. The president has received positive assurance that the senate will take up Crum's case immediately on re-convening of the next session and that it will be disposed of finally. Until he is confirmed Crum cannot draw any salary, but it is said his friends have arranged to see that he is provided with ample funds. Should he be confirmed the government, of course, will pay him the back salary.

SALE OF TIMBER LAND.
The secretary of the interior has approved the instructions of the commissioner general of the land office providing for the sale of pine timber on lands within the ceded Chippewa Indian reservation in Minnesota, Nov. 15 next. The sale will be held at Cass Lake, Minn., and will be by means of sealed bids. The tract comprises 116,000 acres, containing 128,000,000 feet of white pine and 32,000,000 feet of Norway pine.

MUNICIPAL LEAGUE

Various Subjects Discussed at Thursday's Session of the Organization.

Chicago, April 28.—At the afternoon session of the National Municipal League "The New Orleans Situation and What a Partisan Administration has Done" was the subject discussed by J. Pemberton Baldwin, of New Orleans.

W. A. Hempstead, of Meadville, Pa., spoke on "The Use of Political Designations Upon Official Ballots in Connection with the Names of the Candidates." Charles J. Bonaparte, of Baltimore, president of the league, spoke on "Partisanship in Municipal Politics," which he defined as "the activity and influence in our municipal affairs of the great national parties."

A resolution was adopted providing a committee on local taxation, which shall consider what changes may be necessary and desirable in the constitutions and laws of various states and report at the next meeting of the league.

An increase in gifts of $4,344 was reported and it was announced that thirteen new missionaries were appointed during the last year. The treasurer's report showed total receipts for the past year were $35,000. The next meeting will be held in Des Moines, Iowa.

CONSOLATION FOR RUSSIANS

SPIRITS OF THE PEOPLE REVIVED

Destruction of Japanese Trans- ports Appeals to the Popular Mind—The Czar is Indignant Various War News.

St. Petersburg, April 28.—The operations of the Vladivostok squadron have revived the spirits of the people at St. Petersburg, who have been downcast since the destruction of the Petropavlovsk and consequent confinement of the remnant of the Port Arthur fleet to the harbor. The fact that the navy is doing something of an offensive character appeals to the popular mind, which has been unable to appreciate the reason for the inactivity of the Vladivostok squadron.

St. Petersburg is loaded with rumors regarding the sinking of a Japanese transport, the Kio Shin Maru. One report has it that 2,500 men were aboard the transport when she went down, but the admiralty insists there were only 200. It is said the emperor is highly indignant over the affair and that he will relieve Rear Admiral Yeszen and order him to be court-martialed. This report lacks confirmation in responsible naval circles, where it is reiterated no other course could be pursued and that the admiral only fired when the Japanese categorically refused to surrender and adopted a hostile attitude.

Officials say there is no similarity between the sinking of the Kio Shin Maru and the destruction of the Kow Shing, which was sunk by the Japanese before the declaration of war with China, as Russia is at war with Japan. That Yeszen gave the men every opportunity to leave the boat is proved by the fact that all the officers, some of the soldiers, the crew and coolies were transferred on board a Russian cruiser. The day hostilities began between China and Japan, July 25, 1891, the Kow Shing, a British despatch boat, which was conveying Chinese troops, was attacked by Japanese war ships and sunk off Asan. Many of the troops were killed.

Lion Chang, April 28.—Major Togo Tat-zero, a member of the general staff of the Japanese army, who is a prisoner here, having been captured at Wiju, where he had lived since January last, said to the Associated Press to day:

"The Russians will be driven as far as Baku. Further than that we do not wish to go, but will return to Manchuria and open it to the trade of the world. Our people are certain that they can beat the Russian, but I think we began hostilities fifty years too soon. Japan wishes above everything else to command the sea and she will then be free from fear of invasion and loss of territory. Alliance with Great Britain was a stupid act and will be of no service to us. We know perfectly well that the Americans were never our friends, because in the far east they were always our opponents. We are afraid that if Japan is victorious the British and Americans don't intend to help us, but rather wish to exploit us."

JAPANESE REPORT.

Tokio, April 28.—The Japanese gunboat Maya escorting a troop of torpedo boats, entered the mouth of the Yalu river Monday and moved toward Wiju. Enroute it fought a series of small engagements with Russian forces, protecting the right bank of the river. These encounters transpired frequently throughout Monday and Tuesday. Admiral Hoshoya, commanding the third squadron, in reporting the operations says:

"Our detachment reached the Yalu river Monday and while going up the stream the enemy's field guns opened against us without effect. We discovered a force of the enemy on an island in midstream and when we fired at them they fled."

"On Thursday the enemy's cavalry, 400 strong, attacked our launch. Our torpedo boat No. 69 repelled and the enemy fled to the mountains. From Antau Shan we repelled to the enemy's guns and silenced them after half an hour. There were no casualties on our side."

WAR REPORTS.

St. Petersburg, April 28.—The Associated Press was informed no further news has been received here from Wonsan, Corea, or from the Yalu river. Communication is necessarily slow.

Chefoo, April 28.—Chinese Junkmen arriving from the Yalu say the Japanese force has occupied Kurien Cheng, a town just north of Antau, on the Manchuria side of the Yalu river. Only a small body of the Japanese army has crossed the river.

St. Petersburg, April 28.—Russian torpedo boats belonging to the Vladivostok squadron sunk a Japanese military transport of 4,000 tons during the night of April 26 with all on board except seventeen officers, twenty soldiers, sixty-five of the crew and thirty-five coolies. The others, who refused to surrender, were sent to the bottom with the ship.

Admiral Yeszen reports that besides sinking the transport Russians sank at sea the same evening the Japanese steamer Nakamura of 220 tons, whose crew was saved.

Port Arthur, April 28.—Japanese torpedo boats were sighted at 1:30 this morning covered by the Japanese squadron. A few shots were fired, but without damage, after which the Japanese ships disappeared southward.

St. Petersburg, April 28.—The admiralty denies that treasures amounting to six million dollars went down with the battleship sunk at Port Arthur.

Tokio, April 28.—A telegram from Gen-san reports the Japanese transport was sunk near there, but fails to state whether it was wrecked or sunk by Russians.

Liao Yang, April 28.—The delay of the forward movement of Japanese into Manchuria is due to the exceptionally severe weather. It is reported there is considerable suffering among Japanese troops, due to filth and the intense cold.

St. Petersburg, April 28.—The Official Messenger publishes a circular, issued by the foreign office to Russian representatives abroad, declaring categorically that Russia will not accept mediation to terminate the war, which, the circular declares, was forced on her.

Shanghai, April 28.—It is reported here that the Russians have suffered a disastrous repulse after two days fighting on the Yalu river. The Japanese forces crossed the river and the Russians retreated.

EVANGELIST PLAYS BALL.

Hugh Klein had gathered up a formidable bunch of players and challenged the regulars, who were in a tremor until Rev. Mr. Sunday agreed to play with them. He covered center field, was six times at bat, made five runs and scored four hits for a total of seven bases. All the ministers in town attended the game and voted good and hard for Rev. "Billy."

GENERAL OSTERHAUS

Famous War Veteran to be En- tertained by Former Com- rades in Arms.

Washington, April 28.—Gen. P. J. Elaborate plans for the distinguished guest's entertainment while here have been made, which will include a reception and banquet to morrow night, at which will be present several persons who followed the fortunes of war under Osterhaus, including Representative Warner, of Illinois; General Grosvenor, and Assistant Secretary of War Oliver. Another banquet will be given Osterhaus Saturday night. He will be received by President Roosevelt to morrow.

FIGHT WAS STOPPED

St. Louis, April 28.—Coffee to night stopped the fight between Jack O'Brien, of Philadelphia, and Kid Carter, of Brooklyn, in the third round of a scheduled fifteen round bout here to night. Carter was completely outclassed, being practically a beaten man at the end of the first round. He was sent to the canvas four times in the second, going to his corner very groggy. In the third he was put about out by a right to the jaw. In the attempt to rise at the count of eight but police ordered the bout stopped.

CHARGES OF IMMORALITY

MADE AGAINST CONSULAR OFFICIALS

Miss Klein, a Former Missionary to Liberia Says Native Women Are Considered as Legitimate Prey by Foreigners.

Washington, April 28.—Charges of gross immorality on the part of consular officials located in Liberia were made to day by Miss H. A. Klein, one of the speakers at the session of the Florence Crittenton mission. Miss Klein has been in Liberia as a missionary of the Lutheran church, stationed at Mublenburg, thirty-five miles from the capital, but almost infinitely removed, she explained, from the civilization of that city. The native women, she said, were regarded by foreign consuls as legitimate prey, criminal assault was common and in many cases unheeded. Miss Klein specifically exempted Rev. Ernest Lyon, United States consul at Monrovia, the capital, from charges made against other consular officials and paid a high tribute to him.

CHINAMAN'S VIEWS

Paris, April 28.—Mr. Somen, the Chinese minister, in an interview said his country could not view with satisfaction Russia's indefinite occupation of Manchuria, but that it was determined to maintain good relations with the Russian government. War, the minister said, was not desired at Peking. China, he said, is fully aware intervention might cause complications which would be fatal to China herself. "Our trained troops near the great wall do not exceed 20,000," said the minister, "and it is not with such a force the Russian army could be conquered, Japanese aid could not help us much and moreover the court is not anxious to introduce the Japanese army into China, even for the purpose of defending the country." He said China's sole aim is to restrain popular excitement, and orders have been issued to use even unaccustomed rigor for the purpose of preventing uprisings. He considered the only danger of complications lies in spontaneous rising of the people.

REPORTS FROM LONDON.

London, April 28.—The Telegraph's Tokio correspondent asserts the Russian cruisers slipped past the Japanese squadron during a fog and regained the harbor of Vladivostok. This is the only additional news that has reached London concerning the sinking of the Japanese transport Kinsida Maru, which incident is much commented on here as proving the Japanese placed too great confidence in their command of the sea. There is some inclination to criticize harshly the action of Rear Admiral Yeszen, but most papers prefer to await particulars of the affair before passing judgment on it. The report that Japanese had occupied Kiuilin Cheng has not been confirmed.

According to the Standard's Tien Tsin correspondent, the whole country outside the great wall is abnormally flooded and any movement of a land force is impracticable at present.

WOMAN EXONERATED.

Litchfield, April 28.—The coroner's jury in the death of Fred Morris, who was shot and killed Tuesday by Mrs. Polly Coffey, the wife of a saloon keeper, has returned a verdict of justifiable homicide.

It was shown that the man, who was intoxicated, was advancing on Mrs. Coffey after she had repeatedly driven him from the house with a pike. He threatened to kill her, it is charged, and was within five feet of her when the shot was fired.

Morris, who was employed in the Coffey saloon, came to the Coffey residence where he boarded, at noon and, it is said, with provocation struck Clint Pennington, a youth who works there. Mrs. Coffey pulled him away, it is claimed, when he seized her by the throat and pushed her against the table. She put him out of doors, but he returned, when she again drove him out with a stove poker.

The Nickel Supply.

The nickel supply of the world at the present time is derived from two sources. The most important is the Sudbury district of Ontario. The other is New Caledonia, a French penal colony situated in the southern Pacific ocean. Consequently among the great powers France and Great Britain are at present the only ones possessing nickel for use in their armaments, and in modern armament nickel is now increasingly indispensable for armor and guns. There is reason to believe that if the British imperial authorities fall in with Canada's desire to conserve the nickel of Ontario for imperial uses France will at once take similar steps in regard to the nickel supply of New Caledonia.

Russian's Food Cakes.

The Russians have taken the most remarkable secret precautions for the provisioning of their troops. At intervals of about a quarter of a mile along the greater part of the entire length of the Siberian railway stores of concentrated potato food have been buried on each side of the line, each deposit being enough to maintain a company—said to be 200 men—for a week. The position of these provisions is not known to the sergeants or captains, but only to the commanders, who have the information in cipher.—London Chronicle.

Nervous Women

The relation of the nerves and generative organs in women is so close that nine-tenths of the Nervous Prostration, Nervous Debility, the Blues, Sleeplessness and Nervous Irritability arises from some derangement of the organism which makes her a woman. Fits of Depression or Restlessness and Irritability. Spirits easily affected, so that one minute she laughs, the next minute weeps. Pain in the ovaries and between the shoulders. Loss of voice, nervous dyspepsia. A tendency to cry at the least provocation. All this points to Nervous Prostration. Although you may not know it, in nine cases out of ten this is caused by some uterine disorder, and the nerves centering in and about the organs which make you a woman influence your entire system. Nothing will relieve this distressing condition and prevent months of prostration and suffering so surely as

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Will not the volumes of letters from women made strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound convince all women of its virtues? Surely you cannot wish to remain sick and weak and discouraged, exhausted each day, when you can as easily be cured as the two women whose genuine letters follow, and thousands of others.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Words cannot tell what I suffered before taking your medicine. I am 28 years old and the mother of four children, the last two being only 16 months apart. I was all run down, had fainting spells, palpitation of the heart, and was so bad with womb trouble that I could not be on my feet but a short time before I would have to lie down. Also was troubled with leucorrhoea. I was nervous and could not sleep, and at times wished I could die. A friend insisted on my giving your medicine a fair trial, which I did. I began to feel better before the first bottle was half gone, and after using five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and three packages of Sensitive Wash, I was a different woman. I owe my good health to-day to you, and I will never suffer again while you make such good medicine. I will always speak a good word for your remedies. My little girl was troubled with her kidneys, and one bottle of your Vegetable Compound has entirely cured her."—Mrs. KIRK B. PETERSON, Jenison, Mich.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I want to thank you for the good your medicine has done me. When I wrote you last July I was so weak and nervous that I could not endure the sight of work. I was in a terrible condition, so nervous that it took all of my strength of will to keep from convulsions. The doctors did me no good. My heart troubled me, would have spells of skipping beats and would flutter. I had such a feeling of dread and fear about me all the time I was afraid to go anywhere. I commenced taking your remedies as you advised me, and in one week I felt better than I had in a whole year before, and the rain was steady. Day by day the bad symptoms disappeared. My appetite returned and I was able to go to bed at night and sleep like a child. In all I took nine bottles of your Vegetable Compound and seven of your Blood Purifier, and would say to all suffering women, do not stop at a few bottles, but keep on. In three months I was able to return home, and have since done the housework for a family of six. It does not seem possible that I am the same person that suffered so a year ago."—Mrs. T. J. FAUOUR, Leslie, Michigan.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE to women is offered by Mrs. Pinkham. Let her help you to health, it will cost you nothing. Address her at Lynn, Mass.

THE "STANDARD"

Safety Single Generator
Gasoline Stove

The Standard Safety is an entirely new stove, which for safety, economy, convenience and general utility, is superior to any other stove.

It is a single generator type with a powerful generator which has been proven by years of experience to be the most perfect burner of its kind. To this burner is added a safety device which prevents any gasoline entering the burner until generated into gas, so that all possibility of leakage is overcome, and should the generator be closed and the other burners left open, no flooding can occur. The stove has a water trap which automatically separates any water or heavy oils from the gasoline. Different sizes and styles kept in stock.

A CHATTANOOGA DRUGGIST'S STATEMENT.

Robert J. Miller, proprietor of the Read House drug store, of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes: "There is more merit in Foley's Honey and Tar than in any other cough syrup. The calls for it multiply wonderfully and we sell more of it than all other cough syrups combined." J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

MEN'S LEAGUE.

The regular meeting of the Men's league of the First Baptist church was held in the church parlors Thursday evening. A substantial supper was prepared and served by a committee from the league. Following the regular routine of business Dr. L. A. Reed was present and gave a very interesting talk, portraying in an accurate and original manner several subjects.

LIKE FINDING MONEY

Hatch Offers Popular Medicine at Half Price

Hatch the popular druggist, is making an offer that is just like finding money for it is seeing a regular 60 dose bottle of Dr. Howard's celebrated specific cure of constipation and dyspepsia at 25c. In addition to this large discount they agree to return the money to any purchaser whom the specific does not cure.

It is quite unusual to be able to buy fifty cent pieces for a quarter, but that is what this offer really means, for it is only recently, through the solicitation of Hatch the druggist, that this medicine could be bought for less than fifty cents, he urged the proprietors to allow him to sell it at this reduced price for a little while, agreeing to sell a certain amount. The result has justified his good judgement, for the sale has been something remarkable.

Anyone who suffers with headache, dyspepsia, dizziness, sour stomach, specks before the eyes, or any liver trouble, should take advantage of this opportunity, for Dr. Howard's specific will cure all these troubles. But if by a chance it should not, Hatch will give you money.

SALVATION ARMY.

Capt. Farrar of the Salvation army has been requested by a number of friends to give a musical before leaving the city. The captain is quite musical, playing some fifty-six different instruments, and among this collection there are a few of oddity, especially the converted whiskey bottles, which he tunes up with water, and uses two wooden mallets, with which he can play some of the sweetest music. The captain will be ably assisted by his wife and Mrs. Spencer with their instruments. The musical will be given on Monday evening, May 2, in the Armory hall, and an admission of 10 cents will be charged to help them in their car fare to their new appointment, which is Hopkinton, Ill.

CHRONIC BRONCHITIS CURED.

"For ten years I had chronic bronchitis so bad at times that I could not speak above a whisper," writes Mr. Joseph Coffman, of Montmorency, Ind. "I tried all remedies available but with no success. Fortunately my employer suggested that I try Foley's Honey and Tar. Its effect was almost miraculous, and I am now cured of the disease. On my recommendation many people have tried Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction." City Drug Store.

Why Fremont Undermentted Grape Juice Is Nutritious

Because it's Good, Pure and Underment.

FREMONT GRAPE JUICE is not the thing to drink if you must become intoxicated. Thousands of physicians prescribe it in their practice regularly because they have found the FREMONT brand of Grape Juice to be absolutely the life of the grape and nothing else. Alcoholic juices and beverages are temporary stimulants at best, while with FREMONT GRAPE JUICE the good effects are permanent and lasting.

For Sacramental uses, Fremont Grape Juice is certainly the safest, purest and best that can be procured for this purpose.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of circuit clerk of Morgan county, subject to the decision of the Republican county convention.

C. C. L. HAYDEN.
 I hereby announce myself a candidate for the nomination for coroner, subject to the decision of the Morgan county Republican convention. F. M. FERGUSON.

As the campaign continues the strength of Governor Yates is made more and more manifest. There is in the mind of every man a desire for fair play and justice and that very desire tends to increase the prestige of the governor with the people. He has labored conscientiously for the welfare of the whole state regardless of the political affiliations and his acts have been dictated by patriotism and integrity and the facts are before the citizens who will see them at their true worth. Governor Yates has saved the taxpayers vast sums of money by vetoes which cost moral courage in no small degree, and he has stood a bulwark between legislative extravagance and the people who have to foot the bills. He is especially a man of the people and has shown favoritism to no especial class but has ever striven to do the right thing as he saw it by all. The extravagant efforts of some papers and people to undo him have reacted in his favor and now some of these very persons and publications are discovering that they have been wonderfully mistaken, to put it mildly. The vote for Governor Yates in his home county was a grand tribute to a man whom the people have known intimately all his life and have learned to honor for his genuine worth. In view of all these facts it is not at all strange that counties reckoned in another column have fallen into line when the people had an opportunity to express their real sentiments. As soon as the state convention is called he will be on hand with a large force and if the people continue to have their wishes heard he will be nominated and triumphantly elected.

WAS WITH TAYLOR IN MEXICO

Veteran Who Watched the "Boys" go by in Parade

One man at least, who watched the procession of the Grand Army yesterday could hold a prior claim to the title of veteran, though doubtless he would be as courteous to his friends of the Grand Army as Cassius was to Brutus when he said, "An elder soldier, not a better." Charles W. Canfield is his name and he has nearly reached the age of four score years. "I can't march in the procession with these men as a veteran," he said, "and yet I went to war long years before they did. I was with old General Taylor in Mexico in 1847." Mr. Canfield was at that time a resident of New Orleans and went out with a force of 3,000 men sent to reinforce Taylor in the enemy's country.

"I remember that the only thing my father said to me when he came on board the transport to see me off was, 'My boy, whatever I hear of you, don't let it be that you ever turned your back.'"

Only a few of the soldiers of the Mexican war are left. Sangamon county sent a goodly number of them. A few years ago the survivors of that historic conflict were quite numerous but the number has dwindled fast and those who are left are necessarily very old men. It will be remembered that many of the men who had gone through the Mexican war with Scott and Taylor became prominent figures in the civil war.

CONDENSED STORIES.

The Origin of a Witticism at the Expense of "The Watchdog."

That history repeats itself was brought out in the senate debate last winter on breeding stations, when Senator Bailey, Democrat, of Texas alluded to Speaker Reed's bonnet at the expense of Judge Holman of Indiana, "the watchdog of the treasury." Mr. Bailey said the wittiest and bitterest thing Reed ever said was when an appropriation that came very near Holman's home was up and the old judge was remarkably silent about it and Reed said, "The watchdog never barks at home folks."

"That was said," interrupted Senator Hoar, "in 1863 or 1870, when I first came into the house."

Mr. Bailey was sure the remark had been made later, while he was himself a member of the house, which was many years after Mr. Hoar went over to the senate. The Texas senator appealed to Senator Lodge, who was a member of the house at the time. Lodge nodded his head to confirm Bailey's story.

Then Senator Hoar arose and said the witticism originated when E. B. Washburn was a member of the house. He, too, was a "watchdog." He had not objected to a bill passed by his brother, Cadwallader, who was a member at the same time from Wisconsin. "Some one," said Mr. Hoar, "asked the speaker, James G. Blaine, if the representative from Illinois had objected. 'No,' said Mr. Blaine; 'the watchdog does not bark when one of the family passes by.'"

All He Could Carry.

John Kernell, the noted Irish comedian, liked in his prime to go back to Ireland, whence he would often bring material, gathered in alehouses and on the highroads, that afterward served him well in dialogue upon the stage.

Kernell once said at a little supper party in Boston that he had met on a summer day in Galway an Irishman driving a horse so thin that it staggered as it walked.

"Why don't you put more flesh on that nag?" Kernell exclaimed indignantly.

"More, is it?" the Irishman answered. "Why, by the powers, don't you see that the poor creature can hardly carry what little there is on him now?"—Colorado Springs Gazette.

Placing Him.

A friend of H. C. Frick, the Pittsburgh millionaire, was discussing his tastes and mannerisms. He said:

"Mr. Frick loves dearly a good, strong sermon, and in an equal degree he hates a sermon that is carelessly composed and insincere. Sitting beside him in church one day, I got a good manifestation of this latter trait of his."

"The minister was talking about a foreign divine who had died, but his mind didn't seem to be fixed on his subject very firmly. He wandered on and on in a wordy way, like this:

"What place, my brethren, shall we assign to the deceased? Was he the greatest of the apostles? Ah, no; for that place belongs to St. Peter. Was he the greatest of saints? No; for that place belongs to St. Augustine. Was he the greatest of philanthropists? No; for in philanthropy St. Francis excelled him. Then, I repeat, what place?"

"Oh, give him my place and get on," I heard Mr. Frick mutter to himself, with an impatient frown."

Didn't Always Leak.

On a very rainy day an American in London got into an omnibus. Very soon he noticed that drops of water were pattering down upon his head from the roof. At that moment the conductor entered to collect the fares. "What's the matter with the roof?" said the damp passenger. "Does it do this always?" "No, sir," replied the conductor, "only when it rains."

COUNTRY CLUB

Season Will Open Monday—
 First Dance Friday Evening May 6.

The opening of the Country club is always anticipated with pleasure and members are already anxiously looking forward to the baby days when they can frequent the grounds and enjoy the "gentlemen's" game of golf. The club house will be opened Monday, May 2, and the first regular weekly dance will be held Friday evening, May 6. Jeffries' orchestra has again been engaged to furnish the music for the season and delightful programs can always be depended upon. The backwardness of the season has not been conducive to a revival of the golf spirit, but with the appearance of the warm days the links will doubtless prove as popular as ever. Several well known enthusiasts, however, have already enjoyed a few preliminary practice games and the greens committee is giving the grounds careful attention.

PLAIN TALK

Rabbi Hirsch Gives Advice to Jewish People.

Springfield News: The Jewish residents of this city have been much interested in the recent sermon of Dr. Hirsch, of Chicago, on the completion of his twenty-fourth year as pastor of Sinai temple. Dr. Hirsch left immediately after his talk and will spend four months in Europe. His address was to the younger members of his congregation, and he advised them not to "kow tow" to the gentile society, no matter what the object to be gained might be. To cater to the social leaders for the sake of obtaining a better social standing for themselves would unbecome any member of the Jewish race.

Dr. Hirsch said the Jew needed to put into the contest of life more energy than did the ordinary man, but he should endeavor to assert himself and not consider the Jewish blood a taint.

"My talks to you," he said, "shall be of an instructive nature, so that you may learn to appreciate what Jews have done in the world's civilization, and know that they are willingly have laid down their lives in the cause of their adopted country as the native born."

The speaker declared the orthodox Jews of New York conducted religious services on Saturday with the long distance telephone at their ears. "And they spend Sunday," he said, "by keeping pontifical mass, pious pontis, meaning 'bidge.' The Jews of Europe have been trying to wash out the blood by water but they cannot do it. We do not need to do as the Chinese do—kow tow to mandarins unworthy to unlance our boots."

Dr. Hirsch said the Sunday observance of the reformed church in America was a concession to Christianity, and observing the first day was only an adaptation to the conditions.

"Any school boy," he said, "knows there is no universal Saturday. Crossing the 180th meridian you either drop or add a day according to your course. And what, then, becomes of the Jewish Sabbath?"

The speaker defined the differences between the Jewish religion and other conceptions, pagan and Christian. "An undertone of selfishness runs in every religion except ours," he said. "The keynote of them all is promise. The tone of selfishness is detected in the idea that only the righteous shall be saved."

SIXTH RECITAL

Jeffries' Concert Band Delights a Large Audience.

An audience which occupied all available space in Conservatory hall greeted Jeffries' Concert band last night on the occasion of the sixth recital. Chicago has her Theodore Thomas and other cities have their orchestras and favorite musical organizations and Jacksonville has her Jeffries' Concert band, of which she has every reason to be proud. The affair last night was one of the most brilliant successes of the musical season and the audience was fully in sympathy with the talented performers and gave them hearty encouragement all the way through. The first number, March, "Polly Prim," was well received and then came an overture, "Pique Dame," which was heartily enjoyed and the band kindly responded with a stirring selection.

Mr. Carriel's violin solo, "Scene de Ballet," was a fine effort and won a splendid recall which was given and received as were the other numbers.

The people were on the height of expectation when Miss Anderson appeared for her vocal solo and she received with a kindly greeting and proceeded to delight all with an effort which showed her popularity to be well earned. Her selection was difficult, a waltz song, "Carmena," and was rendered in a manner which showed wonderful powers admirably cultivated. The applause which followed was long and loud and earnest was the desire for a repetition of the effort, but the young lady was saving herself for her second number and saw fit to decline a second appearance at the time. Following came a band number, selections from the ever popular opera, "The Bohemian Girl," and the hearers were waffled back in memory, that is, the older ones, to the times when the opera was produced in this city. As the music glided from one song to another the effect was electrical.

"The Heart Bowed Down," "I Dreamed I Dwell in Marble Halls," "When the Fair Land of Poland," "Then You'll Remember Me," "Fair Lady Pause and Listen" and other familiar airs were rendered in a faultless manner and so revived the days of old that a second effort was demanded and responded to in a charming manner.

After the intermezzo, "The Gondolier," Miss Anderson again appeared and was received as before. Her selection was a sweet one, "Happy Days," this time accompanied by the band and winning for the fair young singer another shower of plaudits sufficient to turn the head of one less sensible.

A waltz, "Wedding of the Winds," and a selection, "The Beggar Student," completed the program, and the encores and hearty applause showed the firm places the band has in the estimation of the people of Jacksonville.

Great credit is due Miss Frances Melton for her excellent accompaniments to Mr. Carriel and Miss Anderson's first song. The young lady is an accomplished musician and perfectly at home either in the parlor or before a large audience.

The whole evening was one of rare pleasure and is an earnest of what may be expected in the future.

MEMORIAL CIRCULAR

Issued by Superintendent of Public Instruction—Article by Capt. J. H. Freeman.

Alfred Bayliss, superintendent of public instruction, has issued a memorial day circular addressed to the school children of Illinois. The circular is made up entirely of contributions from former soldiers now living in Illinois. They are bits of personal experiences, fragments of real history written by men who helped make the history. The circular recommends that "it is well for us to turn from the regular day's work to remember and honor the memory of those who died for the republic," and such a sentiment finds ready response in every true patriotic heart.

The circular contains the following interesting personal incident in the war experience of Capt. J. H. Freeman, of this city, who was an officer of the Fourteenth Maine infantry:

"At the end of the war in 1865 the federal government found it necessary to station a number of union troops in different parts of the southern states. Detachments were sent to many of the principal cities and county seats to preserve order and they remained there until the confederate soldiers had returned to their homes and quiet had been restored. My company, which was a part of the 11th regiment, Maine infantry, was sent to Brunswick, Ga. While we were there three southerners called one day at the headquarters of the company. Two of them were in the officers' gray uniforms worn in the army under General Johnston, who had very recently surrendered to General Sherman. Adapting themselves to the fortunes of war, they had come to invite me to go into the country to the plantation of Major Troupe, one of their number, and speak to his former slaves on their rights under the emancipation proclamation of President Lincoln. Thinking that this was a good opportunity to instill in the minds of these people some conception of the word 'liberty,' I accepted the invitation.

A ride of some twenty miles brought us to the plantation of Major Troupe. There we found gathered together on the lawn of the mansion grounds some eighty negroes. It did not take long for me to find that these blacks, whose lives had been spent in bondage, had no adequate idea of the meaning of the word 'liberty.' They had all heard of a thing called the emancipation proclamation, but they were far from comprehending just what Lincoln had done for them. Many supposed that individual liberty meant a right to the white man's property. With the grant of personal freedom some expected they would get a share of their former master's plantation and his personal belongings. It was necessary for the protection of my host to disabuse their minds of such ideas. So I explained to them as clearly as I could their rights as free men. I told them that to the property of Major Troupe they had no claim; that they must work for their living, but they were free to work for whomever they pleased. Their family life, I said, could be like that of the white people about them; no more could any white man separate them from their relatives about them; but they were free to govern themselves and their families as they chose, so long as they respected the rights of others. Finally I impressed upon them that they now had no claim upon their former master, and that if he did not choose to employ them they must live and work elsewhere.

This last statement caused some surprise and evoked a most emphatic protest from a patriarchal, white haired ex-slave, who had been listening with the closest attention to all that I had said. Vehemently he asserted that he had spent all his life in working for Major Troupe, his father and grandfather. Since he was a boy he had always been on the plantation and had always done his best for his master. While Major Troupe was away fighting northerners he had remained at home and had worked hard to harvest the crops and care for the stock. He said the old plantation was his home, and he did not think it would be right to make him seek another. The old black man hesitated and stammered in his plea, and his voice faltered, but his eyes were moist and appealing, and his remarks were so sincere that Major Troupe was quick to assure him that he need have no fear but that so long as the plantation remained in the Troupe family he could live on it and work as little, or as much as he pleased."

TRAITS OF JAPANESE.

Elements In Their Character Pointed Out by Colgate Baker.

SUICIDE CONSIDERED HONORABLE.

He Says the Japanese Are Honest When Honesty Is the Best Policy, Dishonest Whenever It Seems Advantageous—The Nation Has Assimilated Everything in Civilization Except Christianity.

The following is taken from "The Real Japanese Character," which appeared in a recent issue of the New York Independent and was written by Colgate Baker, who was born in Japan and lived there many years.

The leprosy spot in the Japanese character is the moral element, which is absolutely dominated by this luborn philosophy.

It has been stated that the Japanese have no morals, but this is quite untrue. They have no moral ideas, so cherished by western civilization. The beauty of the moral principle—right for right's sake—is quite incomprehensible to the Japanese mind.

In business the Japanese is honest when honesty is the best policy. The merchant who does not take advantage of an opportunity to cheat by giving short weight or substituting an inferior quality of goods considers himself a fool. The man who does not break his pledged word if it is advantageous for him to do so is stricken by his philosophic conscience.

To the Japanese mind personal chastity is a matter of no importance except in the wife and mother. This attitude is consistent with the luborn philosophy that dominates the Japanese character. The interests of the home and posterity make it necessary that the wife should be virtuous, and in justice to the Japanese wife it must be said that she is a model of virtue.

If the husband can find happiness in being a libertine, or in keeping a number of concubines, it is considered right for him to do so. It is only when the husband squanders more than he can afford in riotous living that he is considered to be doing wrong. The principle upon which a libertine husband is condemned in Japan is purely a material one and not a moral one. A young girl may be bonded to a brothel or placed as a concubine by her family if financial reasons make it advisable, and to the Japanese mind it is perfectly proper. The Buddhist doctrine of self sacrifice upholds the girl who sells herself for the sake of her parents, and although she becomes for the time being an outcast from society she is esteemed for her act.

Suicide has always been considered honorable in Japan, the wish to die being considered sufficient justification for the act. No moral principle against suicide is apparent to the Japanese mind. In past generations the samurai code prescribed suicide if it was impossible to live with honor. The passing of the samurai has not witnessed the elimination of his fantastic theories concerning suicide in Japan. The cause of suicide in Japan is almost invariably dishonor.

The religious element in the Japanese character is strong in the women, but the men are materialists pure and simple. The women are the temple goers. Buddhism and Shintoism have taught the women the beauty of self sacrifice, which is the keynote of their character. The religion of the women

Personal luxury—vulgar, ostentatious, unattractive—is rampant. Our men wear diamonds, sapphires, rubies in their ties, in their sleeve links, in their gold cigarette cases, in their match boxes, says the Baltimore American. Brutal ostentation is near on being the good form of today. Our women clothe themselves with reckless profusion. Life is murdered in every quarter of the globe to provide them with furs, with feathers, with the hundred and one gewgaws that have come to be considered essential.

D. H. BARKER

SHERIFF OF CHATTANOOGA TENN.

Another Prominent Man Finds in Vinol the only Cure for Stomach Troubles.

Hon. D. H. Barker, deputy sheriff of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes:

"As I have suffered for years with dyspepsia and stomach troubles, and Vinol has driven that dreaded disease from my system, I am only too pleased to state my experience for the benefit of others. My system became so enfeebled by indigestion that I was unable to work half the time. Many remedies were given a trial, but Vinol was the only medicine that benefited, and finally cured me completely. I am so grateful to be rid of this trouble that I trust this testimonial will come to the eyes of other sufferers who may be benefited as I have been by Vinol.

What Vinol did for Mr. Barker, our druggist, Mr. Lee P. Alcott, of this city, guarantees it will do for every person in Jacksonville suffering from a tired, overtaxed, or worn out stomach which cannot properly digest food.

HON. D. H. BARKER.

Through the digestive organs the blood receives its body building material, and strength and vigor is given to every organ in the body. Vinol strengthens and tones up the weakened nerves of the stomach, and soon enables the sufferer to digest with ease the very foods that once caused distress.

Vinol contains no drugs, and no nauseating oil, but it does contain the vital principles of cod liver oil which will heal and tone up irritated, worn, tired stomachs.

If any person in Jacksonville tries Vinol for stomach troubles, for a rundown, debilitated condition, to give strength to the weak, to gain flesh, to invigorate old people, to make rich, red blood and build up the system, to cure hard colds, to break up constipation, to cure indigestion, to give satisfaction, I will refund the money paid for it.

The "Pill City."

A new cognomen has been added to the already wearisome list of nicknames applied to American cities, says the Toledo Blade. Detroit is now the "Pill City." It is said that 70 per cent of the pill product of the United States is manufactured in that city. It has several large drug manufacturing houses and, in fact, does a larger business in that line than any other place in the United States. The word "pill" embraces not only the old fashioned article resembling a shot, but oval, square, flat and every other shape of tablet and pellet. These are not patent medicines, as a rule, but pills made up according to the formulas in the recognized pharmacopoeias and purchased at wholesale by druggists, to be dispensed as physicians' prescriptions.

SURE CURE FOR PILES.

Itching piles produce moisture and cause itching. This form, as well as blind, bleeding or protruding piles are cured by Dr. Ross's Pile Remedy. Stops itching and bleeding. Avoids tumors, 50 a jar. Treatise free.
Write me your case. Dr. Ross's
Philadelphia, Pa. For sale by L.
O. Allcott.

BEST COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

When you buy a cough medicine for small children you want one in which you can place implicit confidence. You want one that not only relieves but cures. You want one that is unquestionably harmless. You want one that is pleasant to take.
Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all of these conditions. There is nothing so good for the coughs and colds incident to childhood. It is also a certain preventive and cure for roup, and there is no danger whatever from whooping cough when it is given. It has been used in many epidemics of that disease with perfect success. For sale by all leading druggists.

The Asbestos Iron.

Asbestos is being turned to account in so many ways now that one wonders which way will be next.
The asbestos iron is an invention which will surely be liked by housekeepers.

It is not made of asbestos, of course. It resembles in shape the ordinary flatiron. But it is provided with a cover, or outer case, lined with this impervious material, the double purpose of which is to keep the heat of the iron from the hand and to conserve it.

Experience has already demonstrated that irons so protected remain hot much longer than if unprotected, and this is a desirable characteristic, as it results in the saving both of fuel and time.

SCIATIC RHEUMATISM CURED.

"I have been subject to sciatic rheumatism for years," says E. H.
Waldron, of Wilton Junction, Iowa.
"My joints were stiff, and gave me much pain and discomfort. My joints would crack when I straightened up.
I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have been thoroughly cured. Have not had a pain or ache from the old trouble for many months. It is certainly a most wonderful liniment."

For sale by all leading druggists.

PNEUMONIA IS ROBBED OF ITS TERRORS.

by Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the racking cough and heals and strengthens the lungs. If taken in time it will prevent an attack of pneumonia. Refuse substitutes. J. A.
Oberweyer, City drug store.

It is related in London that Lord
Selborne, first lord of the admiralty, heard at a dinner party in London at the eleventh hour of the Russian intention to buy two Chilean war ships. His lordship went home by way of the Chilean embassy and offered a few thousands more than the price named. The sale was effected then and there. So it happened that whereas Japan got two cruisers via the South American power Russia got none.

Gambling at Golf.

Although we have not yet reached the "gambling at golf" stage of the discussion upon the desirability or not of playing golf for a stake, the question is being discussed with some fervor. There can be no doubt that the gambling taint has touched the royal and ancient game and that there are many players who have grown to look upon it as insipid without the incentive of "something on the match."—London Court

Washington, April 29.—For Illinois: Fair and warmer Friday. Saturday, showers; light north winds becoming southeasterly and fresh.

AT THE GRAND.

The Flints, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Flint, opened their three nights' engagement at the Grand last evening before a fair sized audience.

It will be remembered that the Flints appeared here once before, in the season of 1896-97, and that the performances given at that time were of a very laughable nature. The performance of last night certainly outdid those given at the former appearance as a laugh producer, and the audience was kept in an uproarious condition most of the time.

The candidates were tested and given over to Mrs. Flint, who well deserves her appellation of "Little Hypnotic Sunbeam," for she got a surprising amount of fun out of her subjects. The favorite act was probably the hypnotic dance, with which the evening's entertainment closed.

An entire change of program is promised for to night and Saturday.

BRAIN AND BRAUN

Students on Hill Will Meet Carriage This Afternoon and Lake Forest in Evening.

To day and to tomorrow will be red letter days in college affairs. This afternoon the Illinois athletes will contest with those of Carthage on the new athletic field. Both teams have been hampered more or less by the late spring, but the boys are finally in good shape and a spirited contest may be expected. The program will consist of the regular events and probably many new records will be made.

In the evening the annual debate between Lake Forest and Illinois will be held in the gymnasium. The question is "Resolved, That the principle of referendum should be introduced into our governmental system." E. D. Morton, M. Kennedy and E. P. Brockhouse will defend the negative for Illinois. Lake Forest will be represented by A. D. Jackson, C. D. Erskine and C. A. Burgeson. The judges will be Judge Otis Humphrey, of Springfield, Hon. Stewart Brown, of Springfield, and Rev. Arthur Little, of Peoria. The debate is given under the management of the two literary societies on the hill, Sigma Pi and Phi Alpha. The members of these societies this year have gone to a large expense in order to make this debate free. This generous personal action on the part of the members is to be commended and a large crowd should be present.

Saturday afternoon the Illinois base ball team will cross bats with Millikin university. The teams have played several practice games and a splendid contest should result.

AT HIGH SCHOOL

Annual Declamatory Contest Held Thursday Evening—Prizes Awarded

The second annual declamatory contest of the high school was held Thursday evening in the auditorium under the auspices of the Forum Literary society. A large audience was present and was well pleased with the program. Miss Alice Goodrick won first prize and Herbert Graves second. The winner has the honor of representing the school in the Western Illinois High School league and also received a gold medal.

The second prize was a silver medal. The contestants showed careful preparation and the selections were interesting and well given. Frank Rucker, vice president of the Forum society, presided in a pleasing manner.

The first speaker, Paul Whitney, delivered "The Reckless." Mr. Whitney has a good voice and is an orator of ability.

Ralph Bowen gave a declamation entitled "How the Church Was Built at Kehoe's Bar." The young gentleman had his piece well in hand and spoke with force.

"Spartacus to the Gladiators" was the subject chosen by Howard Graves, who gave it in splendid style.

The next speaker, Miss Georgina Lattkemeyer, declaimed "The Heart of Old Hickory" in a capable manner, and was followed by Albert Finkley, who spoke of "Apples."

"Rubenstein's playing" was the subject chosen by Miss Laura Gumm. The young lady had splendid gestures and was well received.

Miss Alice Goodrick followed with a selection entitled "Woman Versus King." The piece calls for dramatic talent and Miss Goodrick responded to the demands of the selection in an admirable manner.

A declamation telling of the adventures of some county children was delightfully given by Miss Mabel Smith, who concluded the program.

The judges were Rev. R. O. Post, Prof. R. O. Stompes and Dr. Jane Scherzer.

The shirt waist is steadily proving its right to a place in the fashionable woman's wardrobe. It will prove a boon to the Dress Goods Department as well as the Garment Department. Now there is nothing prohibitive about the shirt waist suit for any class of trade. It may be a garment planned on a most extravagant scale, made of the most expensive materials, with the most exquisite handwork; or it may be of the least expensive of waist goods made up in the simplest style.
